LYCEUM.

In next week's offering at the Lyoum Theater Manager Thomas will present one of the really first-class attractions on the American Circuit of Burlesque, "The Mischief Makers." This 1919 production of F. W. Gerhardy's is said to be one of the best bets in burlesque this season.

Joe Freed and Mabel Clark head the cast of forty. Rena Vivienne is the prima donns and the supporting artists are Joe Wilton, George Hart and Mabel Lea.

MISCHA LEVITZKI.

An Easter Sunday afternoon concert of unusual interest will be given at the Belasco Theater on Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock when Mischa Levitzki, the famous Russian planist. whose genius has brought forth superlative praise from critics and laymen alike, will appear in recital. There is dash in young Levitzki, lan, fire, energy, elasticity and Masculine sentimentality, poetry, and musicianship characterize, his work. He is a Russian, but cosmopolitan in art.

"Virtuous Men."

One of the most important productions of the year has been secured for Moore's Rialto Theater and will be presented as a special attraction, commencing Sunday. "Virtuous Men" is the production. It stars E. K. Lincoln, was personally directed by Ralph Ince, and contains one of the most notable casts ever assembled before the camera.

"Virtuous Men" was correcived by A. H. Sawyer and Ralph Ince. It tells a virile story of melodramatic "punch." The picture was over seven months in the making, and is the supreme effort of Ralph Ince, whose name has been linked with a series of unbroken screen successes. It has many spectacular scenes and forms an engrossing film entertain-
